

Andrew Dickie TechIDE

Chief Executive

Andrew has over 25 years experience in the industry managing and supervising many high profile projects across the UK. He is the chairman of M&M Demolition's sister company Roadrock (UK) Ltd.

Andrew works closely with all members of the M&M Management team and workforce.

Responsibilities

- Reviewing all company policies & procedures manual.
- Reviewing the senior management and site teams.
- Reviewing & approving the supply chain processes.
- Monitoring and reviewing that the Company maintains the highest levels of quality to its clients in accordance with its ISO9001 accreditations.
- Attending regular management meetings to review health and safety, business performance and develop future business plan.
- Health and safety audits.
- Meeting with current and potential clients and offer guidance in order to provide solutions to their specific needs and concerns.
- Completing tender returns and evaluate the supply chain partner quotations.
- Promotion of the company and its first class services at every opportunity.

Training and qualifications

- OSH Safety for Senior Executives
- Member of the Institute of Demolition Engineers
- NFDC Materials Processing

Key Competencies

- Extensive industry knowledge, skills and over 20 years' experience in working across all sectors.
- Strong people management & leadership skills.
- Knowledge and working practices of multiple client and stakeholder interfaces.
- Respected in the Industry and portrays confidence to complete all projects on time and on budget.
- Proactive problem solver
- Full understanding of key project activities and their relevance towards the successful completion of the projects.

Brief project experience

Andrew has been involved in a number of high value projects during his career which include:

Leeds International Baths, Leeds

Project Value: £800,000

A former Police Station, Leeds

Project Value: £250,000

3 x Tower Blocks, Kilburn

Project Value: £1,100,000

The Old Sorting Office, Bournemouth

Project Value: £285,000

50+ YEARS